Emory Veterans' Day Ceremony

Please join members of the Emory community at the flagpole on the quadrangle at 7:45 am on Veterans' Day, Friday, November 11th to recognize those in the Emory community who serve/have served in our nation's military. The ceremony will culminate with the raising of the flag promptly at 8:00 a.m.

Veterans' Day, originally called Armistice Day, is the day set aside to thank and honor all those who have served in the military – in wartime or peacetime. In fact, Veterans' Day is largely intended to thank living veterans for their service, to acknowledge that their contributions to our national security are appreciated, and to underscore the fact that all those who have served - not only those who died – have sacrificed and done their duty. http://www.tennessee.gov/tsla/tel/Veterans.pdf
