

ACTSI – Community Engagement Research Program (CERP)
Presents

Community Health Matters:

“Building Successful Academic and Community Partnerships to Achieve Health Equity”

When: Thursday, May 28, 2015 (9:00am – 4:45pm) & Friday, May 29, 2015 (9:00am-12:30 pm)

Keynote Speaker: Derrick Tabor, PhD, Program Director, Center of Excellence Program (P20)
National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (NIMHD)

What: The 2nd Annual CERP Community Partnership Forum will provide participants with the tools required to develop and sustain, successful and mutually-beneficial, community-university research partnerships to increase public health in Atlanta, and beyond.

Why:

- 1) To identify public, private and community organizations that wish to participate in Community-based Participatory Research (CBPR).
- 2) To forge strong alliances among academic and community-based organizations to accelerate community development.
- 3) To provide Training Workshops on key topics requested by our partners.
- 4) To highlight current and previously funded “Best Practices” in CERP community focused research.
- 5) To increase capacity-building to improve the health of citizens throughout Atlanta.

Where: Morehouse School of Medicine (MSM), National Center for Primary Care Building,
720 Westview Drive, SW, Atlanta, GA. 30310
