

Examples of alternate payment models include capitation (lump sum per patient), shared savings (providers and payers share savings), and bundled payments (flat fee for episodes of care, a middle ground between capitation and fee for service).