

RSPH faculty received the following grants for research and training between September and November 2012.

Behavioral Sciences and Health Education

- Michael Windle – The development of alcohol use and alcohol disorders across the lifespan (NIH)
- Debra Morris – TSET #5 (Oklahoma Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust)
- Andrea Swartzendruber – Parenting, alcohol use, and sexual risk among young African American mothers (NIH)
- Hui Chae – Psychobiology of racial minority stress and cellular aging (NIH)
- Gene Brody – Feasibility of an Internet-based model for implementation of a prevention program (University of South Florida)

Biostatistics and Bioinformatics

- Lance Waller – Data coordination for the Rosalynn Carter Institute (Georgia Southwestern State University)
- DuBois Bowman – Analytic methods for determining multimodal biomarkers for Parkinson's disease (NIH)

Environmental Health

- Kyle Steenland – Planning for a global environmental health hub based in Chile (NIH)
- Stefanie Sarnat – The Dallas air pollution epidemiology study (Electric Power Research Institute)
- Matthew Freeman – Sanitation and hygiene applied research for equity (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine)
- Dana Barr – Pesticide concentrations in duplicate diet samples (University of California Davis)

Epidemiology

- Carol Hogue – PRAMS stillbirth formative research (Manila Consulting Group Inc.); Maternal and child health doctoral training program (Health Resources and Services Administration)
- Neel Ghandi – Impact of HIV, antiretroviral therapy, and TB genotype of survival in MDR TB (National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases)

Global Health

- Reynaldo Martorell – Assessing impact of MI fortification of states – iron status and anemia – Costa Rica (Micronutrient Initiative)
- Rob Stephenson – Minority stress and mental health among same-sex couples (San Francisco State University); ECHPP for metropolitan statistical areas most affected by HIV/AIDS (George Washington University)
- Carlos del Rio – Seek, test, treat, and retain: addressing HIV among vulnerable populations (Columbia University)
- Mohammed Ali – Speaker's program on diabetes—Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (U.S. Department of State)
- Helena Pachón – ProPAN updating and implementation process (Pan American Health Education Foundation)

Health Policy and Management

- Jason Hockenberry – Impact of volume and temporal distance on the value of organ transplant surgery (Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality)
- Ron Goetzel – Analytic and consulting support for the good health index project (Health Promotion Board); Proposal to conduct the HERO scoreboard validation study (Truven Health Analytics)