Tuesday, October 6, 2020 | 7 - 8 p.m. | Zoom

Keynote Speaker:

Danielle Ofri, MD, PhD
Clinical Professor of Medicine,
New York University School of Medicine

William T. Branch Jr., MD, is an innovator and pioneer in medical education of trainees and practitioners with a focus on primary care. The William T. Branch Jr. Fund for Innovations in Primary Care supports education and research activities focused on primary care at Emory University. The purpose of the William T. Branch Innovation in Primary Care Series will be to offer innovative, interactive presentations that:

- Promote the life-long learning of humanism in medicine
- Support the development of professional identity and a bond to the primary care profession
- Foster collaborative, collegial relationships among health professionals
